

Coordinating global research for wheat

NAME OF EXPERT WORKING GROUP : Adaptation of Wheat to Abiotic Stress (AWAS)
DATE OF THE MEETING	16/12/2016
LOCATION/ONLINE	CIMMYT, Texcoco, Mexico

AGENDA
9:00	1. Welcome 1.1. General housekeeping 1.2. Tour de table
9:30	2. Summary of previous meetings 2.1. EWG meeting in Sydney 2.2. Frankfurt at Jamboree 2.3. Expectations of Wheat Initiative from EWGs
10:15	3. EWG Action Plan 3.1. What are key objectives for coming years? (Funding, white paper, expert database, regional networks, visits, media attention...) 3.2. What should we be targeting with limited time and funds? 3.3. How can we become more effective?
11:00	Morning Tea
11:30	Ctd. EWG Action Plan :Actions list
	Lunch (with Phenotyping EWG)
1:30	4. Joint meeting with Phenotyping EWG 4.1. How can we work together? 4.2. What are key traits of interest? 4.3. What protocols need to be developed? How can they best be disseminated?
2:30	5. Scope for joint grant application 5.1. Can we develop a proposal for ICC consideration?
	6. Scope for joint activities: regional networks, workshops, etc.
	7. Next EWG meeting (Phenotyping) – Tulln, Austria, April 2017
	8. Next EWG meeting (AWAS) – Tulln, Austria, April 2017

LIST OF PARTICIPANTS

Michael Baum, ICARDA, Morocco

Fernanda Dreccer, CSIRO, Australia

Elisabetta Mazzuccotelli, CREA, Italy

Simon Griffiths, JIC, UK

Jagadish Krishna, KSU, USA

Rane Jagadish, National Institute of Abiotic Stress Management (NIASM), India

Matthew Reynolds, CIMMYT, Mexico

Hu Yin-gang, Northwest A&F University, China